Chariot Home Staging, LLC is aired on Local Arizona Television every Sunday in April

Glendale, AZ (April 2009) Chariot Home Staging, LLC will be seen on Desert Lifestyle Television, a “magazine-style” half-hour television program featured on AZ-TV13 the valleys only locally owned broadcast station.

“It’s wonderful that we at Chariot Home Staging have the opportunity to show exactly what we do and how we can help Homeowners and Realtors across the Valley”, says Joyce Corsi Hazen, Professional Certified Home Stager and Owner of Chariot Home Staging. “Our business is growing as Realtors and Homeowners recognize the value of properly staging a home for selling purposes. With a well staged home, Realtors have a much greater chance of selling the home 50% faster and generating an increase of anywhere between 8-17% on the sale price”.

Chariot Home Staging worked exclusively with Ashley Furniture Homestore when selecting the furniture to best fit the two homes on the show. Ashley Furniture caters to homes of all styles and price ranges. These two homes are furnished with leathers and suedes, along with classic wood accenting pieces, to generate a warm and inviting feel throughout the home for Buyers to see and feel, upon entry. Our goal is to assist Buyers in recognizing the potential of the space in each and every room throughout the house.

“Chariot Home Staging works in a professional manner and has great talent. They really bring a special warm and inviting feel to the homes, as I observed through the filming process. It is so evident that staging makes the world of difference in comparison to an empty house. We are delighted to feature Chariot Home Staging each Sunday during the month of April at 6pm, on AZ-TV13, be sure to tune in this Sunday, April 5th, says Patrick Flanigan, Director of Desert Lifestyles TV.
