Chariot Home Staging, LLC launches new Web site to Showcase Staged Projects.

Glendale, AZ (March 2009) Chariot Home Staging, LLC has recently launched a new Web site located at (www.ChariotHomeStaging.com) which will enable the Arizona Based company to highlight their unique staging and redesign projects.

"It's nice to have the added control over the most important content on the new Web site, like projects and public relations information," says Joyce Corsi Hazen, Professional Certified Home Stager and Owner of Chariot Home Staging. "Our business is growing as Realtors and Homeowners recognize the value of properly staging a home for selling purposes. With a well staged home, Realtors have a much greater chance of selling the home and at prices greater than homes with no staging at all."

Chariot Home Staging hired Mediamode Design to design and develop the new Web site. As a unique feature of the site, Chariot Home Staging can now add, delete and change project information remotely and on the fly using a simple internet connection. The secure database also allow for automated Public Relations information.

"Joyce's company is only going to grow. As that happens, Chariot Home Staging personnel needed a simple way to update their web site without having to know how to program a Web site or contact a programmer to do it", says Anthony Banayat, President of Mediamode Design. "Our company gave Joyce and her company a Web site that will grow as her business grows for many years to come!"
